Renaud Megard of NFI Corp. Honored with PBN's 2018 Business Excellence Award in Entrepreneurship

NEW BEDFORD, MA, and PROVIDENCE, RI, ISSUED OCTOBER 9, 2018... Renaud Megard, president and CEO of NFI Corp., the global leader in high performing printed graphic solutions, was recently announced as one of Providence Business News' PBN Business Excellence Awards winners.

Megard and NFI Corp. were distinguished with the "Excellence in Entrepreneurship" award, in recognition for their addition of the HP Indigo WS6800 to their comprehensive line of digital printing offerings earlier this year. Additional winners include Christina H. Paxson, president of Brown University, who is being honored for Business Leadership; Dr. Timothy J. Babineau, president and CEO of Lifespan Corp., who is being given the Corporate Citizenship award; Blue Cross & Blue Shield of Rhode Island, Starkweather & Shepley Insurance Brokerage Inc., Trinity Repertory Company, and Capital Good Fund, all being recognized for overall business excellence; and National Grid Rhode Island (Excellence in Community Involvement); Adoption Rhode Island (Excellence at a Social Service Agency); Local Initiatives Support Corp. Rhode Island (Excellence at a Nonprofit); Project GOAL Inc. (Excellence in Education); Ocean State Job Lot (Excellence at a Family-Owned Business); William M. Davies Jr. Career and Technical High School (Excellence in Workforce Development); and Gil's Appliances (Excellence in a Women-Owned Business).

The winners will be recognized at the BEA Dinner and Ceremony on November 7 at the Omni Hotel Providence.

“We are honored by this recognition and our grateful to Providence Business News for their consideration,” said Megard. “This will encourage us to continue to push forward on finding more new, exciting, and innovative ways to design and provide solutions for our clients.
